EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

- 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.
- □ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.
- □ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] ____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

An individual debtor also may be "in business" for the purpose of this form if the debtor engages in a trade, business, or other activity, other than as an employee, to supplement income from the debtor's primary employment.

"Insider." The term "insider" includes but is not limited to: relatives of the debtor; general partners of the debtor and their relatives; corporations of which the debtor is an officer, director, or person in control; officers, directors, and any persons in control of a corporate debtor and their relatives; affiliates of the debtor and insiders of such affiliates; and any managing agent of the debtor. 11 U.S.C. § 101(2), (31).

ATTORNEY CLIENT BASE RETAINER AGREEMENT FOR CHAPTER 7 BANKRUPTCY RELATED SERVICES

This Agreement is executed between Upright Law LLC ("Firm") and the undersigned ("Client" or "Debtor"), collectively the "Parties". The undersigned Partner of Firm has authorized Firm to affix Partner's digital signature upon this Agreement. Agreement is subject to Partner's further review and approval after consultation with you. This agreement contemplates bankruptcy related services ("Bankruptcy Services" or "Services") ONLY and no other services. Firm is not retained to represent Client in any other legal proceedings. Firm will NOT take any action outside of Services described in this Base Retainer Agreement ("Agreement"). Client acknowledges that no creditor actions including letters, utility shut-off's, garnishments, repossessions, taxing authority's actions, or foreclosure sales will be stopped until the petition is filed. Client is responsible for informing Firm of any critical dates including foreclosure sale dates.

- 1. Type of Bankruptcy Representation and Venue. Client retains Firm, (and not any specific attorney/staff member) to represent Client for Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Services. This Agreement is subject to Client residing in Client's current county of residence for the duration of the Services. If Client determines at a later date that Client desires to file or convert to a Chapter 13, the parties shall execute a new retainer agreement. This Agreement does not include representation in any objection to discharge, audit, adversary proceeding, or any contested matter. Firm will require an upfront retainer if Firm agrees to represent client in any such other matter.
- 2. Type of Retainer Fee ("Retainer" or "Fee"). Client retains Firm under a General Retainer known as a "FLAT FEE" RETAINER" whereby Firm agrees to provide Services for a fixed amount. Firm is retained on a flat fee basis and not on an hourly basis unless otherwise indicated in this Agreement, and is therefore NOT charging its usual hourly rates of $395.00 per hour for attorney time and $125.00 for paraprofessional time. Client understands that before Client verbally agreed to retain Firm, Firm provided legal services to Client through the Financial Empowerment Session (FES), and that as soon as Client signs this written retainer agreement with Firm, Firm will re-review all intake documents and Client information, set up payment plans in Firm's case management system, and perform other administrative tasks associated with opening Client's file. If Client terminates Firm's services, Firm will perform legal and administrative services associated with closing Clients matter. Client understands that the time associated with opening and closing Client's matter will amount to no less than 2 hours of time. As a result, if Client terminates Firm at any time before conclusion of this representation, Firm will have earned fees in this matter. Client agrees that Client owes fees for any pre-termination services and that the value of the services will be computed by estimate of lawyer and paraprofessional time that has been expended, except that if Client terminates Firm's services within 24 hours of a verbal retention, no fees will be charged to Client and any fees paid by Client before termination will be refunded; if Client terminates the Firm more than 24 hours but less than 72 hours after verbal retention, Firm will charge client a $100 processing fee and will refund 75% of any fees paid by Client as of the time of termination; or if Client terminates Firm more than 72 hours but less than one week after verbal retention, Firm will charge client a $100 processing fee and will refund 50% of any fees paid by Client as of the time of termination, all subject to the Client's right to request a refund calculated by estimates of time expended by Firm in regard to Client's case. The refund policy also applies in the event of a termination of this Agreement by Firm. Firm may terminate at will, but ordinarily does not terminate unless Firm believes that Client has acted abusively toward Firm staff, failed to cooperate with Firm in completing Client's case, has lied to Firm, or involves the commission of a crime. Because this is a flat fee representation, Client expressly waives any rights to any accounting or monthly billing of time spent on this matter. Firm may not keep records of time spent on this matter. Time will be estimated and hourly rates will be used in the event of any fee dispute. The Fee is earned when paid and immediately becomes property of the Firm. Fees will be placed into Firm's general expense/operating account and -will NOT be placed into any Firm IOLTA client trust fund account, or any other type of Trust or Escrow account unless required by the rules of the jurisdiction in which Client's matter will be filed. The Retainer is paid by Client to the Firm in order to ensure Firm's commitment of availability for a time period, representation for Services, assumption of Professional Responsibility, and consultation. The amount of the Retainer is based upon the information provided by Client at the consultation and in the information intake sheet and may be adjusted upward by several factors including (i) required services beyond the Bankruptcy Services defined herein, (ii) undisclosed assets, income, debts, transfers and preferences, (iii) failure to pay all the fees and costs within the prescribed time; (iv) creditors exceeding 25 in number, or; (v) additional unsecured debt 20% in excess of amounts indicated by Client at the consultation charged at two and one half (2.5%) of the additional unsecured debt. The Retainer is based on the following assumptions: (a) the Client has provided the Firm with complete and accurate information and fully disclosed all financial information to Firm; (b) the Client's circumstances, particularly the Client's current monthly income does not substantially change prior to the filing of the petition; (c) client provides all requested documents within 15 days of the date of this Agreement or Firm's later request for additional documents. Client acknowledges that Client has 60 days from Client's final payment of Fees to turn in all requested documents or will be charged an additional Fee of $375.00, and that any amounts on deposit with Firm to pay filing fees or other costs will be applied by Firm toward that $375 Fee. No Chapter 7 petition will be filed until all Fees and costs are paid in full and Client provides all documents. Firm assumes no responsibility for any changes in laws should client delay the filing by not paying quickly and providing required documentation.

- 3. Payment Term. The Retainer must be paid in full within 6 months from the date of this Agreement after which the terms of this agreement terminate with no further notice or, subject to paragraph 5 below, obligations due from either party, except that parties can renegotiate terms upon which representation will continue. Client authorizes Firm to make changes to any payment schedule and take payments with verbal authorization.
- 4. Virtual Representation. Client understands and agrees that Firm represents its clients virtually, meaning primarily through means of telephonic and digital (online) communication. Client agrees that whenever possible, Client's communication with the firm will not be face to face at a physical office, but rather through email, over the phone or through a virtual meeting room that Client accesses through Client's computer or telephone. Client has elected to use the Firm, in part, because the Firm offers this service and Client finds this service to be more efficient and convenient. Client also understands that court rules within Client's local jurisdiction may require Client to sign Client's final documents in the presence of the lawyer, in which case Client agrees that Client will travel to Client's lawyer's office at a mutually agreeable meeting time. At Client's request, Client has the right to arrange a meeting with Client's attorney at lawyer's local office or a location mutually agreeable by lawyer and Client. Client understands that Firm reserves the right to charge Client a $100 fee for each in office visit. Client further understands that due to the scheduling challenges associated with in office visits, such visits may cause a delay in the Client's case being filed.

If Client decides with Firm to bring an individual Lawsuit then, in the event of a recovery through settlement or judgment, the fee will be calculated by applying the greater of: a) a multiple of Firm's usual hourly rates at the time of the Recovery, times the actual hours

In various jurisdictions, services for reaffirmation agreements may not be excluded in Firm's limited scope retainer agreement, in which case the Firm will waive the $150.00 fee. Client understands creditors are not obligated to offer reaffirmation agreements. Unless Client obtains a reaffirmation agreement from creditor and contacts Firm to negotiate and/or file a reaffirmation agreement signed by BOTH creditor and Client, Client and Firm shall presume no reaffirmation agreement exists or was requested by Client. Client should continue to make payments on items Client desires to reaffirm, obtain an executed reaffirmation agreement, or risk losing said items. Client agrees the Firm has no obligation to execute any reaffirmation agreement and reserves the right NOT to sign/execute any reaffirmation agreement on behalf of Client, particularly if, in the Firm's reasonable judgment, executing such agreement would not be in the best interest of Client.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
